Employee Handbook Version Control

Version 1.2

DOCUMENT CLASSIFICATION	Internal HR Policies
VERSION	1.2
DATED	1st April 2026
DOCUMENT AUTHOR	HR Department
DOCUMENT OWNER	Kenexai Pvt. Ltd.

Revision History

Version Number	Prepared By	Date	Reviewed & Approved By	Approved
1.2	HR Department	1 -May-2025	Reformatting and amendments	Nitesh Lohar

Approval

NAME	POSITION	Date
Nitesh Lohar	MD	1st - April - 2026

Disclaimer:

The contents of this manual do not constitute, and should not be interpreted as, a contract of employment or a guarantee of continued employment between Kenexai Pvt. Ltd. ("Kenexai") and any employee.

Kenexai reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to modify, amend, suspend, or discontinue any part of this manual, including any policy, procedure, or guideline, in whole or in part, at any time and without prior notice.

Table of Contents

1. Introduction 5
1.1 Company Introduction 5
1.2 Scope 6
1.3 Purpose & Confidentiality 6
1.4 Right to Revise 6
2. Ethics & Governance 7
2.1. Ethical Standards 7
2.2. Code of Conduct 7
2.3. Equal Employment Opportunity Policy 8
2.4. Human Rights Policy 10
3. Employment Lifecycle 12
3.1. Talent Acquisition & Recruitment Policy 12
3.2. Company Commitment to Employees 14
3.3. Probation 15
3.4. Confirmation 15
4. Work Structure 15
4.1. WFH, Working Schedule and Time Tracker 15
4.2. Attendance & Payroll 16
5. Leave & Holidays 17
5.1. Leaves Policy 17
5.2. Sick Leave 18
5.3. Half-day Leave 18
5.4. Cancellation of Leave 18
5.5. Maternity Leave 18
5.6. Paternity Leave 19
5.7. Marriage leave 20
5.8. Bereavement Leave 20
5.9. Compensatory Off (Comp Off) Leave 20
5.10. Leave Encashment 20
5.11. Public Holidays 22

6 Compensation & Benefits 22
6.1 Employee Referral Policy 22
6.2 Performance Bonus Policy 23
6.3 Birthday Celebration Reimbursement Policy 24
6.4 Employee Well-being Policy 25
6.5 Employee Travelling Policy 25
6.6 Client Gifting and Hosting Policy 27
7 Performance & Development 28
7.1 Learning and Development 28
7.2 Certification Course Reimbursement Policy 29
7.3 Appraisal & Performance Management 30
8 Workplace Guidelines 31
8.1 Grooming Policy 31
8.2 Communication Policy 32
8.3 Pantry Area Usage Policy 33
9 Safety & Compliance 35
9.1 Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Policy 35
9.2 Grievance Redressal Policy 38
10 Assets & Security 41
10.1 Company Asset and Property Usage Policy 41
11 Separation & Exit 43
11.1 Employee Separation Policy 43
11.2 Handover – Takeover (HOTO) Policy 47

1. Introduction

1.1 Company Introduction

Kenexai is committed to maintaining a professional, transparent, and growth-oriented work environment. As an employee of the organization, you are considered an integral part of our collective success. The organization recognizes that each employee contributes unique skills, experience, and value to the workplace, and these contributions play a critical role in achieving organizational objectives.

Your position within Kenexai is established with the expectation that you will engage in your duties in a productive, responsible, and collaborative manner. The organization strives to provide an environment that supports professional development, encourages open communication, and fosters continuous improvement across all levels.

Kenexai extends a formal welcome and looks forward to your active participation in upholding our standards, values, and commitment to excellence.

Vision: - To be one of the world's most trusted and innovative partner for Data & AI.

Mission: - Help organizations transform complex data to fuel AI driven innovation and growth

Core Values:

Knowledge: - Knowledge is our foundation. We are relentless in our pursuit of expertise in Data & AI, constantly learning and evolving to help our clients stay ahead in a changing technology landscape.

Excellence: - We never settle for good enough. Excellence drives us to constantly refine our craft, elevate our standards, and deliver outcomes that exceed expectations.

Accountability: - Being accountable means owning what we do — the successes and the mistakes. We stay true to our word, honour our commitments, and take responsibility for the impact we create.

Integrity: - Integrity is at the core of who we are. Doing the right thing isn't negotiable. We build trust through honest communication, ethical practices, and principled decision-making, ensuring our success never comes at the expense of our values.

1.2 Scope

This Employee Handbook provides general guidance on workplace rules, employment policies, procedures, and working arrangements at Kenexai. It is for informational purposes only and does not constitute a contract of employment or create any contractual obligations for the organization.

This Handbook supersedes all previously issued employee handbooks; however, it does not override any existing, updated, or concurrently applicable policies or procedures issued by Kenexai. In the event of any inconsistency, the most current policies maintained by the Human Resources Department or the respective policy owners shall prevail.

Kenexai reserves the right to amend, modify, or withdraw any policy, procedure, or provision contained in this Handbook at its discretion, subject to applicable laws.

The Handbook serves as a ready reference for employees and is intended to promote a professional, fair, and supportive work environment. Employees are encouraged to review this Handbook regularly and contact the Human Resources team for clarification on any matters that are not expressly covered.

1.3 Purpose & Confidentiality

This Employee Handbook sets forth the policies, procedures, benefits, and working conditions applicable to all employees of Kenexai and forms an integral part of the terms and conditions of employment. Compliance with the provisions contained herein is mandatory for all employees.

The contents of this Handbook are proprietary and confidential to Kenexai. No part of this document may be reproduced, copied, disclosed, or distributed, in whole or in part, to any third party without the prior written consent of the Human Resources Department.

This Handbook is intended solely to provide guidance on internal policies, procedures, and organizational practices of Kenexai and does not constitute a contract of employment or confer any legal rights beyond those expressly stated. All matters relating to the governance, administration, and operations of the organization shall be subject to applicable laws and company discretion.

1.4 Right to Revise

Kenexai reserves the right to revise, amend, modify, add to, or delete any and all policies, procedures, work rules, benefits, or provisions contained in this Employee Handbook or in any other related document, at its sole discretion and subject to applicable laws.

Any written revisions or updates to this Handbook will be communicated to employees through appropriate channels to ensure awareness of the revised policies or procedures. No oral statements, representations, or assurances by any representative of Kenexai shall be deemed to modify or override the provisions of this Handbook.

Nothing contained in this Employee Handbook or in any other human resource–related documents, including benefit plan descriptions, shall be construed as creating a contract of employment, a guarantee of continued employment, or any promise or representation thereof.

Employees who have questions or require clarification regarding any policy or procedure are encouraged to contact the Human Resources Department.

2. Ethics & Governance

2.1. Ethical Standards

Kenexai is committed to upholding the highest ethical standards in the conduct of its business. Integrity, honesty, and accountability form the foundation of our organizational values and are integral to our continued success. Employees are expected to act ethically, responsibly, and in compliance with all applicable laws and company policies at all times. When faced with ethical dilemmas, employees must exercise sound professional judgment and make decisions that are consistent with Kenexai's principles and standards of conduct.

2.2. Code of Conduct

The Code of Conduct outlines Kenexai's principles, standards, and ethical expectations that guide employee behaviour within the organization. These standards ensure a safe, respectful, and productive workplace for all. Kenexai expects all employees to follow rules of conduct that protect the interests, integrity, and safety of the organization and its team members. These guidelines are not intended to restrict employee rights but to ensure clarity around acceptable and unacceptable behaviour.

Prohibited Conduct

- Violation of any company policy, practice, or procedure
- Any breach of confidentiality or privacy in violation of Kenexai's agreements, policies, or guidelines.
- Uphold Integrity and Honesty
- Adhere to all applicable laws and regulations, both domestic and international.
- Avoid any misuse or misappropriation of company resources for personal gain.
- Employees should not mislead
- clients or misrepresent any company service or offering.
- Avoid unauthorized downloads, file sharing, or misuse of licensed software.
- Employees should represent the company positively on social media platforms and avoid posting any sensitive company information or making statements that could harm the company's reputation.

- Smoking within office premises
- Neglect of job responsibilities or consistent poor performance
- Falsification, misrepresentation, or alteration of employment records or any company documents
- Recording another employee's work time or permitting someone else to record your attendance
- Theft, deliberate damage, or careless destruction of company property or the property of colleagues, clients, suppliers, or visitors
- Any act or threat of violence, intimidation, coercion, fighting, or engaging in criminal activity during working hours, on company property, or while representing Kenexai
- Use of inappropriate, abusive, or offensive language, including profanity, vulgar remarks, racial slurs, insensitive jokes, or unwelcome name-calling
- Rude, indifferent, or disrespectful behaviour towards customers or colleagues, or engaging in disorderly conduct on company premises
- Conducting lotteries, gambling, or betting on company premises
- Leaving the workplace without prior permission during scheduled working hours
- Sleeping, idling, or loitering during work hours
- Excessive personal use of mobile phones or internet surfing during working time
- Invasion of employee privacy, such as looking into another employee's computer, device, or documents without permission

2.3. Equal Employment Opportunity Policy

Kenexai is an Equal Employment Opportunity employer and is committed to providing a workplace free from discrimination. All employment-related decisions are made based on merit, qualifications, performance, and business requirements, without regard to race, color, ancestry, gender, sexual orientation, age, religion, creed, physical or mental disability, marital status, political affiliation, or any other characteristic protected by applicable laws.

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to affirm Kenexai 's commitment to providing equal employment opportunities to all employees and applicants, free from discrimination, and to promote a work environment based on respect, fairness, and merit.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees, contractors, interns, and job applicants at Kenexai. It governs all aspects of employment, including recruitment, hiring, training, promotions, compensation, benefits, transfers, terminations, and other conditions of employment.

3. Equal Opportunity Commitment

Kenexai is committed to ensuring equal employment opportunities and fostering an inclusive workplace where employees are treated with respect and dignity. The company prohibits discrimination based on any of the following characteristics:

Gender (including pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions)

- Age
- Religion or belief
- Caste
- Disability
- Sexual orientation
- Gender identity
- Marital status
- Nationality or ethnic origin
- Physical appearance
- Any other legally protected characteristic

All employment decisions will be made based on merit, qualifications, and business needs.

4. Recruitment and Selection

Kenexai is committed to hiring individuals based on their skills, qualifications, and potential. We aim to:

- Ensure a transparent and merit-based recruitment process.
- Advertise job vacancies widely to attract diverse talent.
- Ensure that all selection criteria are job-related and applied equally to all candidates.

5. Training and Development

All employees, regardless of their background, will have equal access to training and development opportunities. Kenexai will provide training to enhance employees' skills and knowledge, enabling them to perform their duties effectively and grow within the organization.

6. Compensation and Benefits

Compensation decisions, including salaries, promotions, and other benefits, will be determined based on performance, qualifications, and the responsibilities of the role, without discrimination. Kenexai is committed to ensuring pay equity across all levels of the organization.

7. Reasonable Accommodations for Disabilities

Kenexai is committed to providing reasonable accommodations to employees with disabilities, ensuring that they can perform their job duties effectively. Employees who require accommodations are encouraged to contact HR for assistance in identifying and implementing appropriate adjustments to the work environment.

8. Anti-Harassment and Anti-Discrimination

The company maintains a zero-tolerance policy toward harassment, discrimination, or any form of inappropriate behaviour. This includes unwelcome verbal, visual, or physical conduct that creates a hostile or offensive work environment. Employees found violating this policy will face disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

9. Reporting Violations and Grievances

Employees who believe they have been subject to discrimination, harassment, or unfair treatment should report their concerns to the HR department or any member of the management team. All complaints will be taken seriously and handled confidentially. Kenexai is committed to investigating all complaints promptly and taking appropriate corrective action.

Employees can report grievances without fear of retaliation.

10. Monitoring and Compliance

Kenexai will regularly monitor and review its employment practices to ensure compliance with this policy. The company will also comply with all local labour laws and any relevant employment regulations, including the Equal Remuneration Act, 1976 and other applicable Indian labour laws.

2.4. Human Rights Policy

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to affirm Kenexai's commitment to upholding and respecting fundamental human rights in all its business operations and relationships. The company is dedicated to creating an inclusive, fair, and respectful workplace that promotes dignity and equality for all employees.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees, contractors, suppliers, and partners associated with Kenexai. It covers workplace practices, business operations, and relationships with external stakeholders, ensuring respect for human rights in line with international standards and Indian law.

3. Commitment to Human Rights

Kenexai is committed to the following principles:

- Non-Discrimination and Equal Opportunity: The company ensures a work environment free from discrimination on the basis of gender, age, race, ethnicity, religion, disability, sexual orientation, or any other legally protected characteristic. All employment decisions will be based on merit, qualifications, and business needs.
- Freedom of Association: Kenexai respects the right of employees to form and join associations, and encourages dialogue between management and employees to address workplace issues.
- Fair Wages and Working Conditions: The company ensures that employees are provided with fair wages and a safe, healthy, and inclusive work environment. All working conditions will comply with applicable local labor laws and international labor standards.
- Harassment-Free Workplace: Kenexai maintains a zero-tolerance policy toward harassment, bullying, and any form of abusive behavior. The company is committed to ensuring that all employees are treated with respect and dignity.

4. Child Labor and Forced Labor

Child Labour: Kenexai strictly prohibits the use of child labour in any of its operations or supply chain. The company complies with the Child Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act, 1986, and other applicable laws related to the protection of minors.

Forced Labour: The company is committed to ensuring that all labour is voluntary and free from any form of coercion, including forced labour, bonded labour, or human trafficking.

Employees have the right to leave their employment freely, in accordance with applicable laws and contract terms.

5. Health and Safety

Kenexai prioritizes the health and safety of its employees by maintaining a safe and hygienic workplace. The company will comply with all applicable safety regulations and take proactive measures to prevent workplace accidents and injuries.

6. Privacy and Data Protection

The company respects the privacy of all employees and business partners. Personal information will be handled responsibly and protected in accordance with the company's Data Privacy Policy and applicable data protection laws.

7. Grievance Mechanism

Employees who believe their human rights have been violated, or who witness violations, can report their concerns through the company's grievance mechanism:

Employees can file a complaint with the HR department or report directly to their supervisor.

All complaints will be handled confidentially and investigated promptly.

Kenexai ensures that employees who raise concerns will not face retaliation or punishment.

8. Responsibility and Accountability

HR and Management: Responsible for implementing and enforcing the Human Rights Policy, as well as ensuring compliance with relevant laws and international human rights standards.

Employees: All employees are responsible for respecting the human rights of their colleagues, clients, and business partners, and for raising concerns when they witness violations.

3. Employment Lifecycle

3.1. Talent Acquisition & Recruitment Policy

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to establish a standardized, transparent, fair, and legally compliant framework for the recruitment, assessment, and selection of candidates at Kenexai Pvt. Ltd. This policy ensures that all hiring decisions are conducted consistently, align with the company's strategic human resource objectives, promote equal opportunity employment, and maintain the highest standards of professionalism and corporate governance.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all full-time, part-time, and internship positions within Kenexai Pvt. Ltd. and covers all recruitment channels including campus placements, walk-in drives, employee referrals, online portals, and other sourcing mechanisms. It is applicable to candidates at all levels, including freshers, junior-level professionals, and experienced personnel. All departments, hiring managers, HR personnel, and panel members involved in recruitment are required to comply with this policy.

3. Eligibility Criteria

Education Level	Minimum Requirement	Eligible Streams	Not - eligible Candidates
10th Standard	60%	All streams	Below 60%
12th Standard / Diploma	60%	All streams	Below 60%; diploma-only for technical positions
Bachelor's Degree	65%	B.E., B.Tech in CS, CE, CSE, IT, ITC, or relevant branches	B.Sc, BCA; degrees completing after June 2026
Master's Degree	65%	M.Sc., MCA, AI/ML, Data Analytics, Statistics, or relevant fields	Degrees completing after June 2026

Re-Application Policy: Candidates who are unsuccessful in any stage of assessment or interview may reapply after six months from the date of their last assessment.

Candidate Experience Categories

Candidates shall be classified based on prior professional experience as follows:

- Fresher: 0–1 year of relevant experience
- Junior Level: 1+ to 3 years of relevant experience
- Experienced: More than 3+ years of relevant experience

Recruitment and assessment processes shall be tailored according to the experience category to ensure fair evaluation aligned with role requirements.

Assessment Structure and Passing Criteria

The company shall conduct assessments comprising aptitude, technical knowledge, coding/practical skills, and domain-specific evaluations appropriate to the applied position. Assessment methodologies shall be consistent, documented, and uniformly administered to all candidates.

Passing Criteria:

- Freshers / Junior-Level Candidates: Minimum 60% overall
- Experienced Candidates: Minimum 70% overall

Sub scores or sectional benchmarks may be defined for specialized roles as required.

4. Recruitment Process

1. Requirement identification by the hiring manager, including job description, required skills, experience, and salary bands.
2. Candidate sourcing through appropriate channels and initial eligibility verification by HR.
3. Screening including verification of academic credentials, certifications, and prior employment, and evaluation of candidate alignment with role requirements and organizational culture.
4. Technical assessment to evaluate domain-specific knowledge, coding and programming skills, practical problem-solving capabilities, and other job-related competencies.
5. Managerial and behavioral evaluation to assess problem-solving, decision-making, leadership potential, communication skills, teamwork, adaptability, and cultural fit.
6. Consolidation of assessment scores, interview feedback, and managerial recommendations for final selection.
7. Approval by the Hiring Manager in consultation with HR, followed by issuance of formal offer letters.

5. Roles and Responsibilities

Role	Responsibilities
HR Department	End-to-end recruitment coordination, candidate sourcing, scheduling, record maintenance, and communication
Technical / Functional Panel	Conduct technical assessments, provide unbiased evaluations, and submit feedback promptly
Hiring Manager	Define role requirements, participate in final selection, approve recruitment decisions
Senior Management	Approve offers exceeding pre-defined salary bands, ensure policy compliance, and review recruitment effectiveness

6. Compliance, Monitoring, and Review

All recruitment and assessment activities shall comply with applicable labor laws, corporate governance standards, and anti-discrimination regulations. Any deviations from this policy require documented approval from the Head of HR and the Managing Director. The HR Department shall review this policy annually or as necessary to reflect organizational changes, legal amendments, or best practices in talent acquisition. Documentation of all recruitment activities shall be maintained to ensure accountability, transparency, and audit compliance.

This policy represents the official, formal, and enforceable framework for recruitment and assessment at Kenexai Pvt. Ltd. and supersedes any prior guidelines. It is applicable across all departments and recruitment channels and must be adhered to by all personnel involved in the recruitment process.

3.2. Company Commitment to Employees

At Kenexai, we are committed to providing a safe, inclusive, and high-quality work environment that supports the well-being and professional growth of our employees. In line with this commitment, Kenexai strives to:

- Offer fair and competitive compensation and benefits aligned with market standards.
- Provide training and development opportunities to enhance performance and support career growth.
- Reimburse eligible expenses for approved skill-enhancement courses upon successful completion, in accordance with company policy.
- Uphold best employment practices and ensure equal opportunity for all individuals.
- Promote a healthy work-life balance for employees.
- Recognize and reward employee contributions and achievements.
- Onboarding Process

At Kenexai, we strive to create a welcoming and inclusive work environment and aim to provide every new employee with a positive onboarding experience. Your first day at Kenexai will be engaging, informative, and well-structured. It will include an induction session, completion of joining formalities and documentation, introduction to your team, and a team lunch. You will also receive your Appointment Letter on your date of joining.

As part of the onboarding process, assistance will be provided for completing all required employment-related formalities, including salary account setup and other statutory or organizational requirements, as applicable.

Your IT setup, biometric access, and access to the HRMS system will be arranged to ensure a smooth start and enable you to perform your duties effectively.

3.3. Probation

A newcomer to Kenexai, even with significant prior experience, shall be required to serve a probationary period of three (3) months. Any deviation from this period must be approved by the immediate supervisor and management. The management reserves the right to revise or extend the probationary period under any circumstances, at its discretion.

During the probation period, an employee shall be entitled to three (3) paid leaves. Any unused probationary leaves will be carried forward and credited to the employee's paid leave balance upon confirmation.

For a detailed understanding of leave entitlements and policies, please refer to the Leave Policy.

3.4. Confirmation

An employee shall be deemed confirmed in their position only upon the satisfactory completion of a probationary period of three (3) months, subject to positive performance feedback and approval from the respective Reporting Manager and Human Resources. Confirmation will be effective upon completion of the probation period and approval from the Reporting Manager and HR through the HRMS system. The updated status in HRMS will be treated as official confirmation.

4. Work Structure

4.1. WFH, Working Schedule and Time Tracker

At Kenexai, we recognize the importance of maintaining a healthy work-life balance and supporting employee productivity. To enable this, we follow a hybrid work model, allowing eligible employees to work from home (WFH) for two (2) days per week and from the office (WFO) for three (3) days per week.

Employees who wish to work from home on a scheduled WFO day must inform their Reporting Manager in advance and submit a WFH request through the HRMS (KEKA) system. New employees are required to work from the office during their initial three (3) months to facilitate effective induction into the company's culture, processes, and workflows. Upon successful completion of this period, employees may transition to the hybrid work model.

The approval of extended or exceptional WFH arrangements is subject to management discretion and will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. Interns are expected to work from the office and may avail WFH only in cases of exigency, subject to prior approval from their Reporting Manager and intimation to the Human Resources department.

Employees working from home are expected to maintain consistent productivity levels, timely communication, and prompt response times. In the event of a decline in performance, delays in communication, or non-adherence to working hours, Kenexai reserves the right to withdraw the WFH privilege and require the employee to report to the office.

Kenexai follows flexible working hours, with office operations from 10:00 AM to 8:00 PM, Monday through Friday. Employees are expected to complete eight (8) hours of productive work per day. Working hours may vary depending on business needs, project requirements, client engagements, geographic time zones, and other operational considerations. Productive work time excludes lunch breaks, tea breaks, and recreational activities.

Employees are expected to begin their workday at a reasonable time to ensure effective collaboration with team members. Any deviations, such as late starts or early log-offs, must be communicated in advance to the Reporting Manager and HR. Employees must submit a WFH request in the HRMS system whenever applicable.

To ensure accurate project tracking and payroll processing, all employees are required to complete and submit their daily timesheets in the prescribed format.

4.2. Attendance & Payroll

Attendance Management

At Kenexai, leave and attendance are managed through the Keka system, which serves as the primary source for payroll processing.

The Biometric System is primarily used for security and recording office entry/exit which is integrated with Keka system.

Employee Attendance Requirements

- Employees must punch in and punch out using the Biometric System whenever they enter or leave the office premises.
- All employees must record their attendance accurately in the Keka system by:
    - Applying for Leave

- Submitting Work From Home (WFH) requests

- Only attendance recorded through the Keka system will be considered for payroll processing.

Payroll Management

Kenexai uses the Keka system for complete payroll administration.

Payroll Cycle

- Payroll is calculated from the 1st to the last day of each month.
- Salary will be deposited on the 7th working day of the month.

If the 7th falls on a weekend or public holiday, payment will be processed on the next working day.

Salary Deductions

Standard statutory deductions include:

- Professional Tax
- Provident Fund (PF)
- TDS (where applicable)

Salary Account

All employee salaries are processed through a designated company salary account. If an employee does not have an account with the designated bank, the HR department will assist in opening one.

5. Leave & Holidays

5.1. Leaves Policy

The objective of this policy is to provide employees with reasonable and regular time away from work for rest and personal well-being. It serves as a general guideline outlining leave eligibility, availability, and the procedures for applying for leave at Kenexai. Leave entitlements are governed by applicable company policies and statutory provisions.

Purpose: All employees are granted leave with the good intention of providing rest, health recuperation, fulfilling social obligations, and in the event of an emergency.

Entitlement

Quarterly Paid Leave Credit: Employees will be credited with 3 leaves per quarter on the first day of the first month of each quarter (January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1), totaling 12 leaves annually.

5.2. Sick Leave

- Employees are entitled to 6 sick leaves per calendar year (January to December).
- Sick leave will be credited on a half-yearly basis, as follows:
  - 3 days will be credited in the first half of the year (January to June)
  - 3 days will be credited in the second half of the year (July to December)

Lapse of Leave:

  - All unused sick leave will lapse at the end of the calendar year. No carry forward will be permitted.

- Medical Certificate Requirement:
  - For sick leave of more than 2 consecutive days, submission of a valid medical certificate is mandatory.

Notice Period: No leave credits will be provided during the notice period. Any leave availed during the notice period shall be treated as Leave Without Pay (LWP) and may result in an extension of the notice period, subject to management discretion.

Medical Leave: Employees availing medical leave for more than two (2) consecutive days are required to submit a valid medical certificate to the HR department for verification.

Planned Leave Approval: All planned leaves must be applied for and approved in advance by the respective Reporting Manager and HR Department.

Extended Leave Approval: Planned leave exceeding three (3) consecutive days requires additional approval from senior management or the HR Head.

Leave Communication: For all leave applications, employees must ensure prior intimation and approval from the Reporting Manager, HR, and the respective Project Manager, where applicable. Failure to do so may result in the leave being marked as Leave Without Pay (LWP).

Intern Leave Entitlement: Interns are entitled to one (1) Casual Leave per month, subject to approval and applicable guidelines.

5.3. Half-day Leave

To obtain half-day leave, the employee must complete 4 hours of duty (excluding breaks) during the first or second half of the workday.

5.4. Cancellation of Leave

- Management has the authority to grant or deny leave based on the situation or need.
- Extensions of previously granted leave are not normally permitted. In the event of an emergency, management may grant an extension at her/his request.

5.5. Maternity Leave

Maternity leave is available to any female employee who has worked for Kenexai for one year.

1. Maternity Leave (Biological Mothers)

- As per the Maternity Benefit Act, all eligible female employees are entitled to 182 days of continuous maternity leave.
- Not more than 8 weeks of this leave may be taken before the expected date of delivery.
- The 182-day entitlement is applicable only for the first two children.
- For the third child and onwards, maternity leave entitlement is 12 weeks.

2. Documentation

Once pregnancy is confirmed, the employee must submit a certificate from a registered medical practitioner specifying the expected date of delivery.

The employee must submit a formal leave application to the Reporting Authority with the planned leave dates.

3. Leave for Adoptive Mothers

- Adoptive mothers are entitled to 12 weeks of maternity leave, starting from the date the child is handed over to the mother.
- The child being adopted must be less than 3 months old at the time of adoption.

4. Miscarriage or Medical Termination

In the case of miscarriage or medical termination of pregnancy, an employee is entitled to 6 weeks of maternity benefit, upon submission of a certificate from a registered medical practitioner.

Additional Provisions

- Any extension beyond the approved maternity leave duration will be at the discretion of Kenexai Management.
- Based on the employee's request and mutual agreement, Work-From-Home (WFH) may be permitted after completion of maternity leave for a defined period.
- Upon approval of maternity leave, it is understood that the employee agrees to continue working with Kenexai for a minimum period of 1 year after completing the maternity leave, unless employment is terminated by the company.

5.6. Paternity Leave

Any male employee who has completed one year of continuous service with Kenexai is eligible for paternity leave.

A. Birth of a Child

B. Adoption of a Child (including surrogacy arrangements)

Leave Entitlement & Rules

Eligible employees are entitled to 10 working days of paid paternity leave.

Paternity leave cannot be availed prior to the birth or adoption of the child.

Surrogacy cases are fully covered under this policy.

- Eligible employees may avail their paternity leave within the first eight weeks from the date of the birth or adoption of the child.

5.7. Marriage leaves

Employees shall become eligible for five (5) days of leave upon successful completion of one year of continuous service with Kenexai.

5.8. Bereavement Leave

Any Employee is entitled to five (5) days of bereavement leave in the event of the death of an immediate family member.

5.9. Compensatory Off (Comp Off) Leave

- It is not applicable to all employees by default. It applies only to employees who have been specifically requested or approved by their reporting manager, department head, and HR to work beyond normal working hours due to critical business needs.
- Employees formally requested or approved in writing (email or task assignment) to work on weekends/holidays will be considered
- One day of Comp Off may be granted for a full day (minimum 7–8 hours) of approved work.
- For partial days or less than 6 hours, half-day comp off may be considered
- Comp off should be claimed within 30 days of approval. Cannot be clubbed with any other leaves.

5.10. Leave Encashment

This policy applies to all full-time employees of Kenexai, including permanent and probationary staff. It does not apply to interns, part-time employees, or contractors.

- For every 20 days of working, 1 PL is credited to individual accounts.
- Total of 12 PL's are credited to individual account by end of year subject to joining date
- PL'S are prorated based on the joining date.

- Encashment or settlement of Privilege Paid Leaves (PLs), if applicable, shall be processed through payroll and shall be subject to applicable taxes and statutory deductions as per prevailing laws and regulations.
- Any unutilized Paid Leaves (PLs) at the time of separation shall be encashed as a part of the full and final settlement. The encashment amount will be calculated based on the employee's basic salary applicable at the time of separation.

Leave Encashment Provisions:

At the end of each calendar year, employees are eligible to encash a portion of their unused paid leave as per the following provisions:

- Encashment Percentage: 70% of the employee's unused paid leave balance will be eligible for encashment. The remaining 30% of the unused paid leave will be carried over to the next calendar year.
- Encashment Calculation: The encashment of leaves will be based solely on the employee's base salary as of the previous financial year, prior to the current year's increment or revision.
- Note: Performance bonuses, incentives, and other variable pay components will not be considered in the calculation of leave encashment.
- Encashment Payment: Leave encashment will be disbursed along with the employee's salary in the month following the calendar year closure (typically in February), subject to appropriate taxes and deductions as per government regulations.
- Recovery in Case of Resignation: If an employee resigns or leaves the company within three months of receiving their leave encashment, the entire encashment amount will be adjusted in their full and final settlement, and the employee will be required to return the encashed amount to the company.
- Carry Forward of Unused Leave: The remaining 30% of unused leave will automatically be carried over to the next calendar year and will be added to the employee's available leave balance for the new year.

Eligibility Criteria.

Employees must have completed a minimum of 12 months of continuous service

- Employees who are on notice period will receive their leave encashment amount along with their full and final settlement at the end of the notice period.

5.11. Public Holidays

All permanent employees of Kenexai, including confirmed employees, employees on probation, and interns, shall be entitled to a total of 10/11 (ten/eleven) public holidays in a calendar year, as prescribed in the Company's annual holiday calendar.

These include:

8 - Regular (Mandatory) Holidays

2 - Optional Holidays

These holidays shall be based on the public and gazetted holidays applicable within the workplace's jurisdiction and shall be determined for the period January to December of each calendar year.

6 Compensation & Benefits

6.1 Employee Referral Policy

Employee Referral benefits aim to encourage and reward employees for recommending qualified candidates for open positions at Kenexai. We believe our employees are our best ambassadors, and we value their inputs in building a strong team.

Referring Employee:

- The employee making the referral must be a full-time active employee of Kenexai

The employee must not be on notice period or part of the hiring team for the referred position.

Referred Candidate:

- The referred candidate must be successfully hired for a full-time position and complete the required probation period to qualify for the referral bonus.

If multiple referrals are received for the same candidate, the bonus will be awarded to the first referring employee based on the timestamp of the referral submission.

Referral Bonus Structure:

The Referral Bonus will be determined based on:

- The experience level of the hired candidate.
- The position the candidate is hired for.
- The HR department will maintain a tiered structure for different roles and experience levels, which will be communicated during the referral process. This structure will be reviewed periodically to ensure competitiveness in the market.

Referral Bonus Payment:

- The referral bonus will be credited to the referring employee after the referred candidate completes 3 months of service.
- The bonus amount will be processed and paid in the referring employee's salary within 45 days after the completion of 3 months of service of the referred candidate.
- The referring employee must be an active employee at the time of bonus payment. If the referring employee leaves the company before the bonus is paid, the bonus will not be credited.

Procedure for Submitting Referrals

Employees can submit referrals through email to the HR department.

Referrals must include the candidate's resume, contact details, and a brief description of why the candidate is a good fit for the position.

A confirmation email will be sent to the referring employee acknowledging the referral and indicating the time stamp.

Exclusions

Referrals for internships, contractual, or temporary roles are not eligible for referral bonuses.

Employees from the HR and hiring teams or anyone directly involved in the recruitment process for a specific role are ineligible to receive a referral bonus for that role.

The referred candidate must not have applied directly to Kenexai or been in contact with the recruitment team in the past 6 months.

6.2 Performance Bonus Policy

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines for the yearly performance bonus program at Kenexai. It outlines the eligibility criteria, performance bonus calculation, and conditions for adjustments in the event of resignation. The policy is designed to reward employees based on their contributions to the company's success, ensuring alignment with both individual and company performance.

2. Eligibility

Employees are eligible for a performance bonus after completing one year of continuous service with Kenexai. The performance bonus amount is determined by both the individual performance of the employee and the overall business performance of the company during the financial year.

3. Performance Bonus Calculation

The Performance bonus amount will be determined based on the following factors:

Individual Performance: Performance – Bonus -sharing will be directly tied to the employee's annual performance review. Employees with higher performance ratings will receive a higher portion of the bonus.

Company Performance: The overall financial performance of Kenexai will also determine the size of the performance bonus.

Performance Bonus will range from 0% to 50% of the employee's Cost to Company (CTC), depending on performance metrics.

Credit of Bonus: The bonus amount will be credited to the eligible employees' bank accounts at the end of the financial year. This will be done as part of the annual performance review cycle and based on both individual and company performance for the year.

Resignation and Adjustments: If an employee resigns within three months of receiving the bonus credit, the entire credited amount must be returned to the company.

The amount will be adjusted in the employee's full and final settlement during the exit process

4. Exceptions and Special Cases

Any exceptions to this policy must be approved in writing by the COO or the Head of HR. Special cases, such as employees in unique roles or circumstances, will be reviewed individually and assessed based on their contribution and overall performance.

6.3 Birthday Celebration Reimbursement Policy

1. Purpose: The purpose of this policy is to offer a special occasion benefit to employees, allowing them to celebrate their birthday month with their family. Kenexai values its employees and provides this benefit as part of its employee engagement and well-being program.

2. Scope: This policy applies to all full-time employees of Kenexai and covers the reimbursement of expenses related to family lunches, dinners, or movies during the employee's birthday month.

3. Reimbursement Guidelines

Birthday Month Benefit: Employees are entitled to reimbursement for a lunch, dinner, or movie outing during their birthday month, up to a maximum of INR 1250/-.

Submission of Bills: Employees must submit the original bills related to the outing to the HR Department for reimbursement.

Non-Encashable and Non-Transferable: This benefit cannot be encashed or transferred to another employee. The reimbursement will only be processed after the employee submits the original bills.

Benefit Validity

One-Time Benefit: This benefit is applicable once per year, during the employee's birthday month only.

Non-Rollable: If the employee does not avail of this benefit during their birthday month, it cannot be rolled over to the following months.

Enforcement of Policy

Employees who do not follow the guidelines outlined in this policy will not be eligible for reimbursement. All claims are subject to approval by the HR Department.

6.4 Employee Well-being Policy

The purpose of this policy is to outline Kenexai's commitment to promoting the physical, mental, and emotional well-being of its employees. The company is dedicated to creating a supportive environment that fosters health, well-being, and a positive work-life balance.

This policy applies to all full-time, part-time, and contract employees of Kenexai.

- Health and Safety: The company will comply with all health and safety regulations to protect employees from potential risks.
- Health Benefits: Employees are provided with access to medical insurance and healthcare programs to support their physical well-being.
- Fitness Initiatives: The company promotes physical wellness by offering or encouraging participation in fitness programs, such as yoga sessions, gym memberships, or wellness challenges.
- Workplace Stress Management: The company promotes open communication regarding workload and provides flexible working arrangements where appropriate to help manage work-related stress.
- Work-Life Balance: Flexible Work Options: Kenexai supports work-life balance by offering flexible working hours and remote working options, enabling employees to balance personal and professional commitments and varies type of leave benefits.

6.5 Employee Travelling Policy

1. Purpose

This policy outlines the guidelines for employee travel on behalf of Kenexai, including the daily allowance for various countries as well as domestic and restrictions related to post-travel employment and interactions with customers.

2. Daily Allowance

Kenexai will provide a daily allowance to employees traveling for business purposes, covering meals, transportation, and incidental expenses. The daily allowance will be provided in USD and varies by country and rupees for domestics.

Amount: To be determined based on the specific country/domestic of travel.

Note: Any unspent allowance does not need to be returned, but employees are expected to use the funds judiciously.

3. Post-Travel Employment Obligations

Employees who travel to a customer location or any on-site location are required to remain employed with Kenexai for a minimum of one year following the completion of their travel assignment. If an employee resigns within this period:

Cost Recovery: Kenexai reserves the right to recover all costs incurred during the employee's travel, including but not limited to airfare, accommodation, daily allowance, and any other related expenses.

Non-Compete Clause: The employee is prohibited from joining the end customer directly or indirectly within two years of their travel assignment.

4. Interaction with Customers

Professional Conduct: Employees are expected to maintain professional and ethical behavior when interacting with customers.

Restricted Communications: Employees are not allowed to approach customers directly for any non-work-related matters. Any communication with the customer must be strictly related to the project or work assignment.

Non-Solicitation: Employees are prohibited from soliciting any business, employment opportunities, or personal benefits from the customer during or after the engagement.

5. Liability in Case of Mishaps

Kenexai is not liable for any loss or damages, including but not limited to physical harm, injury, or other mishaps that may occur during travel. Employees are encouraged to ensure their personal safety during trips and may opt for personal travel insurance if they deem it necessary.

6. Exceptions and Special Cases

Any exceptions to this policy must be approved in writing by the COO or a designated authority within Kenexai. Special cases will be considered on a case-by-case basis, taking into account the nature of the travel, the employee's role, and the company's interests.

Copyright Kenexai Pvt. Ltd.

7. Business Travel & Event Sponsorship – Retention and Cost Recovery Clause

Where the Company approves and bears expenses for an Employee's business travel, including domestic or international travel, client visits, conferences, seminars, training programs, or similar events ("Sponsored Travel"), such expenses shall be incurred strictly for official purposes and with prior approval.

Such Sponsored Travel shall be subject to the Employee's continued employment with the Company for a minimum period of Six (6) months from the date of completion of such travel or event.

In the event the Employee

(i) voluntarily resigns, or
(ii) fails to complete the assignment/event, or
(iii) separates from employment due to misconduct or breach of Company policies, prior to completion of the aforesaid period, the Company shall be entitled to recover the full or proportionate cost incurred towards such Sponsored Travel, including but not limited to travel, accommodation, visa, insurance, registration fees, and any other related expenses, on a pro-rata basis.

The Employee expressly agrees and authorizes the Company to adjust and recover such amount from any dues payable at the time of separation, including salary, reimbursements, incentives, or full and final settlement, in accordance with applicable laws. Any shortfall remaining thereafter shall be recoverable from the Employee.

This clause shall not apply in cases of separation due to medical reasons, redundancy, or other reasons as may be approved by the Company.

6.6 Client Gifting and Hosting Policy

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to provide guidelines for client gifting, hosting client lunches/dinners, and handling customer-related reimbursements at Kenexai. The policy ensures proper processes are followed, and that all interactions with clients are conducted professionally and in alignment with company standards.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees of Kenexai who are responsible for client relationships, including but not limited to gifting, hosting meals, and managing client-related travel.

3. Client Gifting Guidelines

Gifting Approval: Employees are not allowed to gift clients in their own name. Any gifts provided to customers must be sent on behalf of Kenexai. Employees should inform the HR

Department and COO before making any purchases for customers.

Budget Approval: All gift purchases must be pre-approved by the Head of HR and the CFO to ensure the expenditure aligns with company guidelines.

Gifting Process: Employees should follow internal procurement processes to buy gifts, ensuring all purchases comply with company standards and are appropriate for the occasion.

4. Client Lunch/Dinner Hosting

Pre-Approval for Hosting: Before hosting a client lunch or dinner, employees must seek pre-approval from the CFO. Approval includes ensuring that the meal is held at specified restaurants recommended by the Operations Department.

Professional Conduct: Employees are expected to maintain professional attire and behavior when hosting clients for meals, representing the company with the utmost professionalism.

5. Client Travel Hosting

Client Pickup and Travel: Employees responsible for receiving clients from the airport or using cab services for internal client travel can claim reimbursements.

Internal Travel with Clients: When traveling with clients or attending hosted meals, employees are expected to maintain a professional appearance and represent the company diligently throughout the client interaction.

6. Reimbursement Submission and Process

All invoices and receipts for client-related expenses, including meals and travel, must be submitted to the HR Department and CFO within 30 days of the expense being incurred.

Reimbursements will be processed only for expenses that have been pre-approved and are in accordance with company policy.

Exceptions: Special cases will be assessed based on specific circumstances.

7 Performance & Development

7.1 Learning and Development

Kenexai recognises that continuous on-the-job training is essential for employee productivity, growth, and long-term success. An organisation can only thrive when its employees are skilled, motivated, and aligned with its mission and vision. Our Learning & Development (L&D) initiatives aim to enhance employee performance, support retention, and empower teams to convert knowledge into meaningful action. L&D is a core pillar of Kenexai, helping bridge skill gaps, strengthen capabilities, and build a future-ready workforce.

L&D Activities at Kenexai: To balance ongoing work and employee development, Kenexai conducts L&D activities fortnightly or monthly. These initiatives help employees upgrade their skills and contribute more effectively to organisational growth.

Below are some of the core L&D methods followed at Kenexai:

1. Soft Skills Training (Workshops, Seminars & Discussions)

Structured sessions aimed at helping employees build essential soft skills such as communication, teamwork, leadership, and problem-solving key capabilities that drive both individual and organisational success.

2. Group Discussions & Debates

Highly interactive sessions that encourage employees to:

- Share diverse viewpoints
- Build persuasive communication
- Strengthen analytical and critical-thinking skills
- Learn to collaborate and articulate ideas confidently

3. Fun Learning Activities

Engaging, enjoyable activities designed to:

- Reinforce real-time learning
- Improve employee bonding and team spirit
- Create memorable learning experiences that stay relevant in professional life

4. Case Studies & Project-Based Learning

Hands-on problem-solving sessions that encourage employees to:

- Analyse real scenarios
- Develop practical solutions
- Apply theoretical concepts to real-world challenges

7.2 Certification Course Reimbursement Policy

Kenexai supports employees in enhancing their professional qualifications.

Employees must obtain prior approval from their Reporting Manager and Management before enrolling in any certification or upskilling course.

Approval depends on the relevance of the certification to the employee's role, client requirements, and business needs.

The certification registration must be done using the employee's official company email address.

The company will reimburse the exam fee if the employee successfully passes the certification exam.

If the employee resigns within one year of obtaining the certification, the reimbursed amount will be recovered and adjusted in their Full and Final Settlement (F&F).

7.3 Appraisal & Performance Management

At Kenexai, the performance appraisal process is designed to recognise employee competencies, reward excellence, and support professional growth. Appraisals help align individual performance with organisational goals while ensuring fair and consistent evaluation of each employee's contribution. Kenexai follows a Management by Objectives (MBO) approach, where employees and their managers collaboratively identify, plan, and evaluate goals for each appraisal cycle.

Appraisal Process

Step 1: Performance Evaluation

The employee's performance is:

- Reviewed, assessed, and measured by the Reporting Manager/Department Head
- Evaluated against the agreed-upon objectives for the appraisal period
- Documented and communicated to management for review

Step 2: Management Review

Management:

- Reviews the performance ratings submitted by the Reporting Manager/Department Head
- Determines the appraisal percentage (%) and the corresponding change in the employee's annual compensation package
- Finalises the increment based on overall performance, organisational goals, and business conditions

Step 3: Communication of Appraisal

The finalised appraisal outcome is:

- Communicated to the employee through a formal appraisal letter/official email
- Made effective from the month of June every year
- Retention-Linked Appraisal Policy

Any salary increments or appraisal benefit granted to the Employee shall be subject to the Employee's continued service with the Company for a minimum period of three (3) months from the effective date of such revision.

In the event the Employee resigns within this period, the Company reserves the right to (i) roll back the Employee's compensation to the pre-revision salary, and (ii) recover the incremental amount paid over and above the pre-revision salary, calculated on a pro-rata basis.

The Employee agrees that such recovery may be adjusted against any dues payable at the time of separation, in accordance with applicable laws.

8 Workplace Guidelines

8.1 Grooming Policy

The way you dress, look, or carry yourself affects your self-assurance level at your workplace. A professional look creates a good impression and earns respect, which eventually increases your own confidence.

General Guidelines

- Employees may wear formal, casual, or semi-casual attire, such as:
    - Jeans with a T-shirt or shirt
    - Decent Indian wear
- Clothing should always look neat, clean, and presentable.
- Shorts and ripped/torn jeans should be avoided inside the office.
- Footwear such as formal shoes, sandals, or sports shoes may be worn; however, slippers are not permitted in the office.

Professional Appearance for Meetings

- For all client meetings—whether virtual or in person—employees must pay special attention to their appearance.
- Formal or business casual attire is recommended for any external-facing communication.

Clothing Fit and Quality

- Clothing must fit properly and should not be inappropriate or uncomfortable for others in the workplace.
- Avoid wearing clothes that are:
    - Unclean
    - Wrinkled
    - Torn, frayed, or damaged

Client Location Guidelines

- When visiting or working from a client location, employees must adhere to the client's dress code and workplace norms.

Recommended Style

- Maintain a stylish but subdued look suitable for a professional environment.
- Business casual attire is generally a safe and comfortable choice for daily work.

8.2 Communication Policy

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to provide guidelines for clear, professional, and responsible communication within Kenexai. Effective communication is critical for ensuring collaboration, maintaining confidentiality, and safeguarding the company's reputation in internal and external interactions.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees, consultants, contractors, and anyone representing Kenexai, regardless of their level, function, or location. It governs both internal and external communications.

3. Internal Communication

Clarity and Professionalism: Employees must ensure that all internal communication is clear, professional, and respectful. Emails, messages, and documents should be concise and free from ambiguity.

Approved Communication Channels: Employees are expected to use company-approved platforms (e.g., Microsoft Teams, Slack) for internal communication. Personal messaging platforms should not be used for official discussions unless approved by management.

Respectful Interaction: Employees must communicate in a respectful and inclusive manner, avoiding offensive language, discriminatory comments, or inappropriate jokes.

4. External Communication

Accuracy and Confidentiality: Employees must ensure that any external communication is accurate, and no confidential information is disclosed. Sharing sensitive company or client data without proper authorization is strictly prohibited.

Public Statements: Any external communication, including press releases, interviews, or public statements representing Kenexai, must receive prior approval from the CEO.

Client Communication: Professionalism should be maintained in all client interactions. Employees must ensure that commitments made to clients are within the company's scope of services and policies.

Escalations: Employees are prohibited from directly discussing any escalations with customers or vendors of Kenexai without management's involvement.

Escalations must be routed through management for proper handling.

5. Social Media Usage

Company Accounts: Only authorized employees are permitted to manage and post content on Kenexai Technologies' official social media accounts. All content must align with the company's values and brand.

Personal Social Media: Employees are encouraged to promote positive company news on personal accounts but must avoid sharing confidential or proprietary information. Opinions expressed on personal social media should be clearly distinguished from the company's official stance.

6. Confidentiality and Data Security

Employees must adhere to confidentiality guidelines when handling sensitive information. All communications that involve proprietary or client-related data must follow company security protocols.

Employees should not share company documents, data, or intellectual property with unauthorized parties, and must ensure that all communication complies with the company's Data Security Policy.

7. Non-Compliance and Disciplinary Action

Any violation of this policy, including misuse of communication channels or sharing of unauthorized information, may result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment.

8. Monitoring

The company reserves the right to monitor communications made through its systems (e.g., email, messaging platforms) to ensure compliance with this policy. Any unauthorized usage may result in corrective action.

9. Exceptions

Any exceptions to this policy must be reviewed and approved by the COO or the Head of HR.

8.3 Pantry Area Usage Policy

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to provide guidelines for the responsible use of the game zone and pantry area at Kenexai., ensuring that the recreational areas are maintained for the benefit of all employees while promoting a respectful and enjoyable workplace environment.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all full-time employees, part-time employees, contractors, and visitors at Kenexai. It covers the use of the game zone, pantry area, and other recreational facilities.

General Guidelines for Usage

- Responsible Usage: Employees are advised to use company property, including the game zone and pantry area, with care. Any damages caused due to negligence may lead to the employee being held responsible for repair or replacement costs.
- Waste Management: Employees must dispose of waste properly in designated bins and cooperate with the office support staff to maintain cleanliness.
- Electric Appliances: Electric appliances (e.g., microwave, refrigerator, coffee machine) in the pantry should be used responsibly. Employees should ensure appliances are used safely and are turned off after use where necessary.

3. Pantry Area Guidelines

- Alcohol Prohibited: The consumption of alcoholic beverages in the pantry area is strictly prohibited. Employees should respect this rule to maintain a harmonious environment for all.
- Seating Arrangements: Employees are not permitted to move the dining tables or other furniture from their original positions in order to seat together. The setup should remain as is for the comfort of all employees.
- Food Deliveries: Employees ordering food from delivery apps must personally collect their orders from outside the office premises, as delivery executives are not allowed inside the office. Please avoid requesting office support staff to collect deliveries on your behalf.

4. Food Credit Redemption

- Monthly Credit Allocation: Employees will receive monthly credits based on their physical presence in the office during the previous month. For each day worked from the office, the employee is entitled to one credit to redeem for a food item from the pantry. For example, if an employee worked 15 days in the office in October and 5 days from home, they will be entitled to 15 food credits for November.
- Non-Transferable and Non-Cumulative: These credits are non-transferable and cannot be rolled over. Unused credits will lapse at the end of the month and are not redeemable for cash.
- Eligibility for Redemption: Employees must work a full day from the office to be eligible to redeem these credits.
- Official company holidays will not be counted when calculating the number of credits for the following month. Employees working remotely are not eligible for this benefit.
- Notice Period: Employees who are serving their notice period will not be entitled to receive or redeem food credits during the notice period.

Copyright Kenexai Pvt. Ltd.

5. Game Zone Guidelines
   - Noise Control: Employees using the game zone should ensure they are not disturbing other colleagues by making loud noises. The game zone should be a place for relaxation, but noise should be kept to a reasonable level.
   - Smart TV Usage: Employees are welcome to use the Smart TV for live streaming sports events and watching movies. However, the content being streamed should be respectful of others' sentiments. Avoid streaming content that may offend or harm the dignity of any individual or group.

6. Enforcement of Policy

Employees who do not follow the guidelines outlined in this policy may face disciplinary action, including but not limited to restricted access to the pantry and game zone areas.

7. Exceptions

Any exceptions to this policy must be approved by the COO or the Head of HR.

9 Safety & Compliance

9.1 Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Policy

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to provide a safe, respectful, and dignified work environment for all employees and consultants of Kenexai. It aims to prevent and address complaints of sexual harassment at the workplace in accordance with the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal) Act, 2013.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees, consultants, trainees, interns, vendors, visitors, clients, and any other individuals associated with Kenexai, whether working at company premises or off-site, including during company-provided travel and events.

3. Important Definitions

- Aggrieved Individual
  An individual, of any age, whether employed or not, who alleges to have been subjected to an act of sexual harassment by the respondent. This includes employees, contractors, trainees, interns, visitors, and clients.
- Respondent
  A person against whom a complaint of sexual harassment is made under this policy.
- Complaint
  A written or verbal grievance filed by an aggrieved individual regarding an act of sexual harassment.

- Sexual Harassment

  Includes any unwelcome act or behaviour, whether directly or indirectly, such as:

  - Physical contact and advances.
  - A demand or request for sexual favours.
  - Making sexually coloured remarks.
  - Showing pornography.
  - Any unwelcome physical, verbal, or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature.
  - Sexual harassment also includes the following circumstances:
  - Implied or explicit promise of preferential treatment in employment.
  - Implied or explicit threat of detrimental treatment.
  - Creating a hostile or intimidating work environment.
  - Humiliating treatment affects an individual's health or safety.

4. Internal Complaints Committee (ICC)

An Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) shall be constituted to address complaints of sexual harassment. The ICC will consist of:

A Presiding Officer, who is a senior female employee.

At least two employees with knowledge or experience in dealing with sexual harassment issues.

One external member from an NGO or an individual familiar with the issues related to sexual harassment.

The ICC is responsible for receiving, investigating, and resolving complaints in a timely manner.

5. Filing a Complaint

- Complaints can be filed in writing or via email to poshcommittee@kenexai.com within 3 months from the date of the incident or, in the case of a series of incidents, within 3 months from the last incident.
- In cases where the aggrieved individual is unable to file a complaint due to physical or mental incapacity, a complaint can be filed by a relative, friend, co-worker, or guardian on their behalf.
- The ICC may extend the complaint filing period by another 3 months if there are valid reasons for the delay.

6. Process

- The inquiry will be conducted following principles of natural justice, ensuring fairness to both the complainant and the respondent:
- Upon receiving a complaint, the ICC shall send a copy of the complaint to the respondent within 7 working days.

- The respondent must submit a written reply within 10 working days, along with relevant documents or witness details.
- The ICC will conduct a thorough inquiry, including the examination of witnesses, review of evidence, and conducting hearings with both parties.
- The inquiry will be completed within 90 days from the date of receipt of the complaint.
- Both parties will have the right to representation during the inquiry, and legal representation is not allowed.

7. Conciliation

Before initiating the inquiry, the ICC may, at the request of the complainant, attempt to settle the matter through conciliation, provided that no monetary settlement is involved. If the conciliation is successful, the ICC shall record the settlement, and no further inquiry will take place.

8. Interim Relief

During the inquiry, the ICC may recommend the following interim measures to the management based on the complainant's request:

- Transfer of the complainant or the respondent.
- Grant of 3 months of paid leave to the complainant, in addition to any regular leave entitlement.
- Any other measures to ensure the safety and well-being of the complainant during the pendency of the inquiry.

9. Inquiry Findings and Action

- Upon completing the inquiry, the ICC will submit its findings to the management within 10 days.
- If the ICC concludes that sexual harassment has occurred, it may recommend:
    - Restoring the lost benefits to the complainant.
    - Disciplinary action against the respondent, which may include a written apology, warning, demotion, or termination.
    - Deduction from the salary of the respondent for compensation to the complainant.
    - If the allegations are found to be malicious, the ICC may recommend action against the complainant.

10. Confidentiality

All proceedings, findings, and evidence related to sexual harassment complaints will be treated as confidential. Disclosure of any confidential information related to the case will result in disciplinary action, except when required by law.

11. False Complaints

In the event that the ICC concludes that the complaint was made with malicious intent, the complainant may face disciplinary action. However, the inability to substantiate a complaint does not automatically indicate malicious intent.

12. Queries and Assistance

For any questions or assistance related to this policy, employees should contact the HR department or any member of the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC).

13. ICC Members:

Sr No.	Name	Designation	Contact
1	Nupur Lohar	External Member	nupoor.gehlot@kenexai.com
2	Labdhi Shah	Member	Labdhi.shah@kenexai.com
3	Zeel Patel	Member	zeel.patel@kenexai.com
4	Nishee Prajapati	Presiding Officer	nishee.prajapati@kenexai.com
5	Harsh Kakadiya	Member	harsh.kakadiya@kenexai.com
6	Ganpat Prajapati	Member	ganpat.prajapati@kenexai.com

This policy complies with the provisions of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal) Act, 2013 and aims to create a safe and supportive work environment.

9.2 Grievance Redressal Policy

Kenexai supports every employee's right to raise concerns or grievances if they believe a decision, action, or behavior affecting their employment is unfair. The organization is committed to resolving grievances promptly, fairly, respectfully, and as close to the source as possible. All grievances will be handled confidentially, objectively, and without retaliation.

1. What Constitutes a Grievance?

An employee may raise a grievance related to:

- Policies, pay, or benefits
- Working conditions
- Harassment, bullying, or inappropriate behaviour of any kind
- Any decision or action that the employee perceives as unfair

2. Principles of the Grievance Process

- Grievances should ideally be resolved informally before escalating.
- Matters should be handled discreetly, sensitively, and without bias.
- Employees must be treated fairly and respectfully throughout the process.
- All procedures must comply with applicable anti-discrimination and equal opportunity laws.
- Employees raising grievances will be protected from any adverse consequences or retaliation.

3. Grievance Handling Process

The grievance process at Kenexai follows these steps:

Step 1: Initiate Formal Notification

The employee submits the grievance in writing (email or letter) to the HR Department at grievance@kenexai.com.
The written grievance should include:

- A clear description of the issue
- Relevant dates, locations, and people involved
- Any supporting evidence
- The remedy or resolution sought

Step 2: Investigation of Grievance

HR, along with the relevant manager(s), will:

- Review the complaint
- Gather necessary information
- Conduct interviews, if required
- Maintain confidentiality throughout

Step 3: Grievance Hearing

The employee is given an opportunity to:

- Explain the issue in detail
- Present evidence or witnesses
- Respond to any information gathered

A fair and impartial hearing is ensured.

Step 4: Decision-Making

Based on the findings, HR and management will:

- Evaluate the situation objectively
- Arrive at a fair and justified decision
- Recommend corrective or preventive actions where necessary

Step 5: Communicate the Decision

The final decision is:

- Communicated to the employee in writing
- Explained clearly, including any action steps to be taken

Step 6: Corrective Action

If the grievance is found valid, appropriate measures will be implemented to:

- Resolve the issue
- Prevent recurrence
- Ensure a safe and fair working environment

4. Escalation Process

If the issue remains unresolved:

- The matter will be escalated to the Managing Director for review and a final decision.
- HR will forward all relevant documents and findings.
- The Managing Director will provide a written response to the employee and coordinate with HR for any required actions.

5. Grievances Related to Harassment or Sensitive Issues

In circumstances where discussing the grievance with the immediate manager is inappropriate (e.g., harassment, bullying), the employee may directly approach:

- The HR Department
- Senior Management

Such complaints will receive priority handling, ensuring safety, confidentiality, and compliance with legal obligations.

6. Post-Resolution Review

Regardless of the outcome:

- HR and senior management will review the underlying issues that triggered the grievance.

Copyright Kenexai Pvt. Ltd.

- Preventive measures may be implemented to strengthen policies, practices, and workplace culture.
- The focus is on maintaining healthy long-term working relationships and preventing future disputes.

10 Assets & Security

10.1 Company Asset and Property Usage Policy

1. Purpose

This policy provides guidelines for the appropriate, secure, and responsible use of company property at Kenexai. The objective is to protect company assets, maintain their value, and ensure a safe and productive working environment.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all full-time, part-time, contract employees, interns, and third-party personnel who have access to company assets.

It covers all company-owned property including but not limited to:

- Electronic equipment (laptops, desktops, monitors, printers, mobile phones, tablets)
- Software and digital assets (licensed software, databases, company data)
- Furniture and office supplies
- Vehicles
- Access cards, keys, and security devices
- Storage devices (USB drives, external hard disks)
- Computer systems and network resources

3. Proper Use of Company Property

All employees must use company property responsibly and only for authorized business purposes unless otherwise approved.

Employees must:

- Use company equipment appropriately.
- Maintain assets in good working condition.
- Immediately report any malfunction, damage, or issue to the relevant department (IT/Admin).

4. Security of Company Assets

Employees are responsible for safeguarding company property assigned to them.

This includes:

- Protecting devices from theft, loss, or unauthorized access.
- Using secure passwords and following security guidelines.

- Ensuring company data stored on devices is protected.

5. Unauthorized Access or Activity

Unauthorized actions related to company systems or data are strictly prohibited, including:

- Accessing files or systems without authorization
- Copying, modifying, deleting, or transferring company data without permission
- Installing unauthorized software or programs
- Sharing confidential information with unauthorized individuals
- Using company systems for illegal or unethical activities

Violations may result in disciplinary action, including termination.

6. Data and Program Ownership

All systems, programs, and data stored on company devices remain the exclusive property of Kenexai, regardless of who created or accessed them. Employees may not copy, modify, rename, add, or delete information belonging to other users without explicit permission.

7. Allocation and Return of Assets

Issuance of Assets

Employees may be issued company assets based on job requirements. An asset acknowledgment form must be signed confirming receipt and responsibility.

Return of Assets

Upon resignation, termination, or transfer, all company property must be returned in good condition, including:

- Laptops and accessories
- ID cards and security keys
- Software and licensed tools
- Any other issued equipment

Failure to return company assets may result in deductions from the employee's final settlement.

8. Loss, Damage, or Theft

Any loss, theft, or damage to company property must be reported immediately to the employee's manager and HR/Admin.

Employees may be held financially responsible for repair or replacement if negligence or misuse is determined.

9. Personal Use of Company Property

Limited personal use of company property may be allowed during breaks or outside working hours with prior approval, provided that:

- It does not interfere with job responsibilities

- It does not compromise company security
- It complies with company policies

Company property must not be loaned, sold, or transferred to any third party without management approval.

10. Restrictions on Non-Employees

Non-employees are not permitted to solicit, distribute, or display written or digital materials on company property without authorization.

11. Right to Inspect

Kenexai reserves the right to inspect company property, systems, or materials on its premises when required to ensure compliance with company policies.

12. Violations and Disciplinary Action

Employees found violating this policy may face disciplinary action, including:

- Written warning
- Recovery of damages or replacement costs
- Suspension
- Termination of employment

11 Separation & Exit

11.1 Employee Separation Policy

The objective of this policy is to outline the procedures and guidelines to be followed when an employee separates from Kenexai for any of the following reasons:

a. Resignation
b. Termination of services
c. Unforeseen event

1. Resignation

- A resignation is defined as a permanent separation from employment initiated by the employee.
- Employees must not discontinue their service at Kenexai without providing prior written notice of their intention to resign.
- Resignations must be submitted in writing (via email or letter) to the Reporting Authority and the HR Department and must be recorded through the Keka portal.
- HR, along with the Reporting Authority, will conduct a discussion with the resigning employee to understand the reason for resignation. After this discussion:

- If the employee wishes to stay, they must withdraw their resignation in writing via email and through the Keka portal.
- If the employee chooses to proceed, a formal resignation acceptance will be issued in writing.

Notice Period

- Full-time employees must serve a 60-day notice period.
- Employees on probation must serve a 30-day notice period.
- The notice period begins on the date the written resignation is submitted to the Reporting Authority/HR.
- All employees are required to either serve the full notice period or compensate with salary in lieu of the unserved portion.
- Kenexai may, at its discretion, relieve the employee earlier based on business needs and mutual discussions.
- The Company may, at its discretion, relieve an employee prior to completion of the notice period based on business needs and mutual discussions.
- The notice period may vary based on the employee's role, responsibilities, and business requirements, and may be extended up to a maximum of ninety (90) days at the discretion of the management.

Last Working Day

- The last working day will be mutually agreed upon by the Reporting Authority, HR, and the employee, and must be approved by Management.
- If the final day of the notice period falls on a holiday or weekly off, the relieving will occur on the preceding working day.

Leaves During Notice Period

- Employees are not permitted to take leave during the notice period.
- In exceptional cases (medical or urgent circumstances), leave may be granted with prior approval from the Reporting Authority, and the notice period will be extended accordingly.
- Employees are not eligible for Leave or optional holidays during the notice period.
- Any leave taken during the notice period will be treated as Leave Without Pay (LWP).
- Leave accumulation will be calculated only up to the month of resignation.
- Departing employees are eligible for encashment of unused accumulated Paid Leaves as part of their Full and Final (F&F) settlement based on basic pay.

2. Termination of Services

- Subject to applicable policies, Kenexai may terminate an employee's services if their continuation is deemed not in the organisation's best interest. This authority rests solely with Management.

Grounds for Termination

The company may terminate an employee's services under the following circumstances:

- Consistently unsatisfactory performance.
- Unsatisfactory performance following the extension of probation.
- Failure to meet expectations during a Performance Improvement Program (PIP).
- Violations of company policies, code of conduct, or employment agreements.
- Major behavioural misconduct.
- Involvement in criminal or illicit activities.
- Ethical violations or participation in unethical practices.
- Encouraging or influencing others to engage in non-compliance.
- Conflict of interest with Kenexai's business or interests.
- Medically or mentally unfit to continue service (as determined by appropriate evaluation).

Notice Period for Termination

- Employees terminated by Management are not required to serve a notice period.
- The last working day will be determined solely by Management.

3. Unforeseen Event

In the unfortunate event of the death of an employee while in service, Kenexai will extend assistance to the employee's family.

Support Provided

- HR, in consultation with Management, will provide support and guidance to the employee's family in managing the situation.
- An advance amount, if required, will be provided to the next of kin to cover immediate expenses.
- Full and Final (F&F) dues will be processed within 15 days, with any advance adjusted accordingly.
- Provident Fund, medical insurance claims, and other statutory benefits will be processed promptly as applicable.

Copyright Kenexai Pvt. Ltd.

Handover & Clearance of Dues

Employees must complete all assigned work and responsibilities before their relieving date. They must settle all outstanding dues, including loans and advances. Employees are required to return all Kenexai property, including but not limited to:

- Knowledge transfer deliverables as guided by the Reporting Authority
- Files, documents, and digital materials
- Laptops, desktops, other assets

A Relieving Letter will be issued only after all dues are cleared and all company property has been returned.

Full & Final (F&F) Settlement

- The employee's last month's salary and the F&F settlement will be processed within 45 days of the relieving date.
- F&F settlement includes:
    - Salary up to the last working day
    - Unclaimed reimbursements (if applicable)
    - Unclaimed expenses (if applicable)
    - Encashment of unused Paid Leave (if applicable)
    - Adjusted deductions and recoveries as applicable
- The Relieving Letter will be issued on the last working day.
- The Experience Letter will be provided only after completion of the full F&F process.

Exit Interview

Kenexai values continuous improvement and positive employee relations. Exit interviews are conducted to gather honest feedback from departing employees.

- Every separating employee must participate in an exit interview.
- HR is responsible for initiating and completing the exit interview process.
- Employees must complete and submit the Exit Interview Form via HR or the Keka portal.
- HR will use this information to assess employee experiences and identify opportunities for organisational improvement.

Note:

Kenexai reserves the right to withhold or adjust employee compensation at the time of resignation or termination. Any pending repayments such as training costs, certifications sponsored by the company, or leave adjustments, will be balanced against the Full and Final settlement where applicable.

11.2 Handover – Takeover (HOTO) Policy

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure a smooth, efficient, and structured transfer of responsibilities, knowledge, and ongoing project activities. This process helps prevent disruptions, eliminates knowledge gaps, and ensures that the incoming employee or team can continue work effectively without delays.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all Kenexai employees and teams involved in:

- Application development
- Application or technical support
- Project or product management
- Any transition involving change of department, project, role, or team
- Any formal handover of work to another team for maintenance, enhancement, or further development

3. Definitions

- Handover: The process by which the outgoing employee or team transfers all relevant knowledge, tasks, documents, responsibilities, and operational ownership to another individual or team.
- Takeover: The process by which the incoming employee or team receives, reviews, and accepts the tasks, responsibilities, knowledge, and project ownership.

4. HOTO Procedure

1. Planning

- The outgoing employee/team must notify all relevant stakeholders at least two weeks in advance, unless otherwise approved by Management.
- Identify the scope of the handover, list tasks, responsibilities, and knowledge areas.
- Schedule a HOTO meeting with the incoming team, Project Manager, and relevant stakeholders.

2. Documentation

The outgoing team must prepare and share all essential documentation, including:

- Project overview and objectives

- Codebase repository access and structure
- Tools, platforms, and credentials (as per policy)
- Architecture diagrams, workflows, and deployment processes
- Pending tasks, open issues, risks, and dependencies
- Key contacts and escalation matrix
- Any other material relevant to project continuity

3. Knowledge Transfer (KT)

- Conduct structured KT sessions covering system architecture, codebase, business logic, dependencies, tools, environments, and best practices.
- Provide demos, walkthroughs, and relevant training materials.
- Ensure the incoming team has access to all repositories, environments, and working files.

4. Validation

- The incoming team must review the received documentation and materials.
- Conduct code reviews, environment checks, and validation tests as needed.
- Discuss and resolve any knowledge gaps with the outgoing team before completion.

5. Completion

- Once both parties confirm that all items have been addressed, a Handover–Takeover (HOTO) Document must be completed.
- The outgoing team, incoming team, and Project Manager must sign the document to officially confirm successful transition.

6. Roles and Responsibilities

Outgoing Employee/Team

- Prepare complete, updated documentation.
- Conduct thorough knowledge transfer sessions.
- Provide access to all necessary tools and resources.
- Support the incoming team during the validation phase.

Incoming Employee/Team

- Actively review all documentation and materials.
- Attend KT sessions and confirm understanding.
- Identify gaps and follow up with the outgoing team.

- Sign off only after all necessary knowledge/ownership has been gained.

Project Manager

- Oversee and coordinate the entire HOTO process.
- Ensure timelines are met and documentation is adequate.
- Validate completion of the process and approve final sign-off.
- Ensure compliance with Kenexai standards and policies.

Documentation Management

- All HOTO documents must be securely stored in designated company repositories.
- HOTO documentation must be retained for a minimum of one year or longer if required by project, audit, or regulatory needs.

Kenexai reserves the right to review above policies annually/periodically and to amend it from time to time to reflect changes in company practices, business goal, employee benefits, and applicable legal or statutory requirements.